Arabic Voice: None. ajab, javed, afzal. 47 The Muslim authors of the earth-wide dominant version of the Quran in modern times have used this verse to explain the existence of two different time periods, the present time for the Muslims and the next world time for the Jews, Christians and unbelievers and non-Muslims. The various Muslim points of view about this verse are summarized below. No. 22.15 This is the period during which the Prophet Muhammad is still alive and the Muslims are in the period of Prophet Muhammad but Allah has transferred the revelation to The Prophet Jesus (pbuh). This is the period when the Prophet Muhammad is alive and the Muslim believers are in the period of the Prophet Muhammad and he is still the leader of Muslims. The Prophet Jesus (pbuh) has come in the past and he will come again. This is the period during which the Prophet Muhammad is alive and the Muslims are in the period of the Prophet Muhammad and he is still the leader of Muslims.
