If you could only pick one person to go to college with, who would you choose? Perhaps you would like to go to college with your best friend. It might be your father or mother. You may want to go to college with a friend you've had a long relationship with. The idea of going to college with someone you don't know can be intimidating. Would you really want to attend a school where you didn't know any students? Every student dreams of finding the perfect college, the college where she or he will excel. We often think that there's only one college for each student, and we dream of attending that college. In reality, students choose several colleges based on their interests, skills, and experiences. In the end, it doesn't really matter where you go to school as long as you are happy with your college experience. Four Ways to Find a College That Suits You 1. Start at the Beginning: Researching Colleges The first step to selecting a college is to research all of the options. This might seem overwhelming and time consuming, but it's one of the most important steps to a successful college search. Begin your
